

Constantin Bilciu, Ph D

Fields of activities:

- Relational Data Bases
- Advance Programming Methods
- Artificial Intelligence
- Fuzzy Systems
- Data Communications and Networks
- Develop Quantitative Investment Models
- Design and implement Internet sites.

Education and Major Activities

- Ph.D. Computer Science, Polytechnic University, Bucharest, Romania
- Graduate Polytechnic Institute Bucharest in engineering
- Authored more than ten microcomputer systems and several main frame and mini computer systems for macro and mini economic applications
- Active board of Directors member of the "World Organization of Systems and Cybernetics" - Great Britain.
- Built Money Market & Foreign Exchange systems for Lloyds and Barclays Bank in USA
- Numerous books and articles and participation to several International Conferences.
- Member editorial board of the "Academy of Economic Studies", where he also taught. Computer Science for 15 years.