

Tim Tuttle, Managing Director and partner Newport Asia.

Thomas R. (Tim) Tuttle, CFA

Partner

Tim Tuttle has over 38 years of experience in the investment industry. Prior to co-founding Newport Asia, Tim was President and CEO of Newport Pacific Management, joining the company in 1984. While at Newport Pacific, Tim co-managed the Liberty Newport Tiger Fund and the Liberty Newport Greater China Fund as well as managed Newport Pacific's Asia-Pacific Region, Asia-Pacific Region ex-Japan and Greater China strategies. Prior to affiliating with Newport Pacific, Tim was Chairman of the Lone Pine Group, an investment banking firm he established in 1981. Before 1981, Tim managed institutional marketing for Security Pacific National Bank and was Chief Investment Officer for Trust Assets at Seattle First National Bank. Tim, a graduate of Williams College, earned a CFA designation in 1973. Each year, Tim travels extensively in the Far East, visiting company managements and other information sources. Tim has conducted numerous investment seminars on investing in Asia and is frequently quoted in business publications and news programs, including: the NewsHour with Jim Lehrer, CNBC, CNN, Pensions & Investments, Forbes (Asia) and Worth Magazine.

<http://newportasiallc.com/>